ABOUT US

HeartWood London Ltd is a distinguished name in bespoke kitchens and fine furniture, renowned for uncompromising quality and timeless design. With a fully integrated workshop and spray finishing facility in London, we combine advanced craftsmanship with meticulous attention to detail under one roof.

We work in collaboration with leading interior designers and architects, as well as directly with private clients, to deliver exceptional projects tailored to individual lifestyles.

Our design philosophy blends traditional British heritage with contemporary elegance, resulting in pieces that are both enduring and refined.

From concept and design through to manufacture, delivery, and installation, our bespoke service ensures every commission is realised with precision and sophistication — creating interiors that elevate both form and function.
